CUES® Announces Newly-Elected Supplier Member Advisory Committee Representatives

MADISON, Wis.—The Credit Union Executives Society announces the 2010-2011 CUES Supplier Member Advisory Committee. Members include:

• Chairman: Randy Schultz, VP/Marketing, Weber Marketing Group, Seattle
• Vice-chair/Chairman-elect: Michael Bartoo, Regional Manager, Marquis Software Solutions, Plano, Texas
• Committee Member: Jim Gowan, EVP/COO Sales and Marketing, Credit Union 24, Tallahassee, Fla.
• Committee Member: Elizabeth Tarleton, Senior Account Executive, JHA Payment Processing Solutions, Seattle
• Committee Member: Charles Shanley, Executive Search Director, John M. Floyd & Associates Executive Search Group, Baytown, Texas
• Immediate Past Chair/Ex-Officio Member: Kellie Lowder, Senior Vice President, SWBC, San Antonio

The advisory committee meets four times a year to provide input and make recommendations regarding CUES Supplier Membership to the CUES Board of Directors.

CUES Supplier members represent firms that provide products and services to the credit union movement. It’s a convenient way for CUES members to connect with industry suppliers, forming relationships that are mutually beneficial, and that ultimately improve the industry as a whole.

To learn more about CUES and CUES Supplier Membership, visit cues.org. The Credit Union Executives Society is a Madison, Wisconsin-based, independent, not-for-profit, international membership association for credit union executives. Its mission is to educate and develop credit union CEOs, directors and future leaders.

###