

CUES Outstanding Executive

*A*chievement, motivation and dedication are all attributes of an outstanding leader. Individuals of this caliber continually contribute to the movement, their credit union and their community. It's about exceptional executives. This year, it could be you or one of your peers!

Who is eligible? A chief executive officer who is a member of CUES.

What is being judged? Performance excellence is what distinguishes this individual from his/her peers.

The CUES Board of Directors will consider the following in making their decision:

- Contributions to the employing credit union to include financial statements, as well as credit union achievements, innovations, and recognition.
- Contributions to CUES and its councils to include volunteer service, participation in education, and support via staff participation.

Nominations:

To nominate yourself or someone you know, please contact Maria Kinney, CUES' Member Services Assistant, via e-mail (maria@cues.org) or by phone: 800.252.2664, ext. 5326. Let her know the person's name, title, credit union, and e-mail address.

No entry form is required. Once an eligible candidate is nominated, he/she will automatically be considered for the award. CUES will research the person's information based on the criteria above. However, any additional information provided by the nominee or the nominator (such as a summary of accomplishments or a letter of recommendation) is helpful and encouraged.

Entry Deadline:
June 4, 2010

The winner receives:

- A crystal trophy
- A $250 contribution to a Section 501c (3) charity in his/her name
- A feature article in Credit Union Management magazine.
- The opportunity to present the award to the next year's winner
