For Immediate Release:
December 6, 2010

For more information, contact:
Barb Kachelski, CAE, SVP/Chief Operating Officer
800.252.2664 or 608.271.2664, ext. 5318
barb@cues.org • cues.org

CUES® Announces 2010 Volunteer Hall of Fame Inductees

MADISON, Wis.—The Credit Union Executives Society congratulated the 2010 CUES Volunteer Hall of Fame inductees at an awards ceremony on Sunday, December 5, at its Directors Conference in Phoenix.

This year’s honorees included:

• Patricia J. Ellis, Chairman of the Board, HEW Federal Credit Union, Alexandria, Va.
• Joseph E. Toochin, Ex-Officio Chairman and Director, United Nations Federal Credit Union, Long Island City, N.Y.
• George Whitfield, Director, generations federal credit union, San Antonio
• Dale R. Whittaker, Chairman of the Board, Vantage West Credit Union, Tucson, Ariz.

CUES Volunteer Hall of Fame award, an honor introduced in 2009, ensures outstanding directors are always remembered. CUES is pleased to recognize these individuals who have shown dedication to self-development, encouragement of full board development, and have provided ideas for advancement of all credit union boards. Inductees are presented with an artistic glass award, and the interactive PDF presentation listing the inductees’ achievements shown during the conference is posted on CUES’ website. Visit cues.org/VHoF to see all the 2010 inductees and learn more about the CUES Volunteer Hall of Fame.

The Credit Union Executives Society is a Madison, Wisconsin-based, independent, not-for-profit, international membership association for credit union executives. Its mission is to educate and develop credit union CEOs, directors and future leaders.

###