CUES® Recognizes 2017 CUES Governance Leadership Institute™ Graduates

MADISON, Wis.—CUES is pleased to recognize 40 credit union board members and executives who recently completed CUES Governance Leadership Institute. All have earned the distinguished Certified Credit Union Director (CCD) designation, bringing the number of credit union executives and directors who have their CCD to 733.

Attendees of this graduate-level program learn from distinguished faculty at the Joseph L. Rotman School of Management, University of Toronto. They leave the institute knowing how to balance healthy debate and diversity with consensus building. Key issues of study include strategy in the boardroom, risk management, negotiations, duty and liability, influencing change, succession planning, and communications.

Highly-respected Rotman was ranked the number one business school in Canada by the Financial Times in 2016.

To learn more about CUES or CUES Governance Leadership Institute, visit cues.org/gli, or contact Teresa Brogan, CUES' executive education specialist, at 800.252.2664 or 608.271.2664, ext. 331; or email teresab@cues.org.

CUES is a Madison, Wisconsin-based, independent, not-for-profit, international membership association for credit union executives. Its mission is to educate and develop credit union CEOs, directors and future leaders.
