CUES® Broadens Board Governance Offerings with Aprio

MADISON, Wis.- CUES, in partnership with Aprio Inc, is bringing Aprio board portal software to its members.

Aprio software is designed to make managing a board, running productive board meetings, and sharing confidential information simple and convenient.

"We are excited to make communicating with directors simple and affordable," said CUES president/CEO John Pembroke. "As credit unions continue to grow in the digital age, their needs for managing board relations have become more sophisticated. With Aprio, our goal is to provide an industry leading service and streamline the process for board members and their administrators, while strengthening the engagement and governance of credit union board members."

With Aprio, directors will have instant access to the latest meeting agendas and documents, mobile access from anywhere in the world, in-software note taking, and easy file uploading and sharing for all devices. Aprio provides a feature rich and secure experience, which makes good governance simple and affordable for credit unions of any size.

"We are honored to bring CUES members software that makes it simple to achieve transparent communication, efficient decisions and well-run board meetings," said Ian Warner, President and CEO of Aprio. "Credit unions care deeply about engaging their members and Aprio software extends that promise to board directors."

Credit union administrators will be able to consolidate the board meeting preparation process with one-stop access for members to the year's meeting calendar, board documents, contacts and more. Take a look now.
