CUES Welcomes Hyland as CUESolutions Provider

MADISON, Wis.— CUES is pleased to welcome Hyland, a leading provider of software solutions to manage content, processes and cases, as a 2018 CUESolutions provider. As the only CUESolutions technology provider, Hyland’s experts will offer CUES members technology best practices and insights to streamline processes, digitize data and optimize business practices enterprise wide.

CUES identifies CUESolutions providers as experts, and partners with them to showcase their thought leadership to its membership. CUES selected Hyland after a rigorous evaluation process to identify a technology vendor who can provide members with unbiased industry insights to help them map out new technology or modernization strategies, select the right vendor to fit their needs and reap the full benefits from the technology investments.

“In the fast paced and ever changing financial services industry, credit unions are looking to experts to help them understand the complex changes they face and technology solutions available to meet their needs,” said John Pembroke, CUES’ President/CEO. “Hyland’s history of serving credit unions was a perfect addition to our CUESolutions providers, and we’re looking forward seeing our relationship thrive.”

“Partnering with CUES bolsters our strength, commitment and dedication to the credit union industry – which we’ve proudly served for more than 25 years,” said Michelle Harbinak Shapiro, financial services solution marketing manager at Hyland. “We’re excited to provide CUES members with educational posts and video best practices to help them plan and successfully achieve their strategic technology initiatives.”
