CUES® Launches CUManagement.com

MADISON, Wis.—CUES is pleased to announce the launch of its new content website CUManagement.com, the go to source for in-depth industry content.

“We are living in an ever-evolving digital world, and as the trusted thought leader in the credit union industry, CUES is committed to changing the way we provide learning opportunities to our market,” says John Pembroke, CUES President/CEO. “Working to expand our digital footprint, we developed CUManagement.com to be an enhanced, multifaceted experience, encouraging daily learning for CEOs, executives, directors and future leaders.”

The new CUManagement.com is designed to be a part of our industry’s daily routine, and as an essential resource for learning and development. It features compelling articles, blog posts, videos, podcasts, whitepapers, and generates daily content for all levels of the credit union.

CUManagement.com is a multimedia platform that produces content and information specific to credit union roles and interests such as Leadership, Strategy, Governance, Operations and much more. This dynamic and powerful new site is also the perfect companion to our industry leading print publication, Credit Union Management™ magazine, and is available on both desktop and mobile devices.

To experience CUES’ new digital content website, visit CUManagement.com.
